Punjab Situation

120. SHRI PAWAN KUMAR BANSAL: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) what is Government's latest perception of Punjab situation;

(b) what is the estimated number of sophisticated weapons and quantity of ammunition smuggled into Punjab during the last six months; and

(c) what steps have been taken to check the inflow of weapons and ammunition into the country from across the border?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PERSONNEL, PUBLIC GRIEVANCES AND PENSIONS AND THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI P. CHIDAMBARAM): (a) The situation in Punjab is continuously engaging the attention of the Government. All efforts are being made to stamp out terrorism and restore peace and normalcy.

(b) According to information furnished by the Government of Punjab, 186 weapons, bearing foreign markings, have been recovered in the State during the period 12th May, 1987 to 31st January, 1988.

(c) Steps taken in this regard include strengthening of security arrangements and intensification of patrolling by security forces on the border.

Notices issued by Chandigarh Administration

121. SHRI PAWAN KUMAR BANSAL: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that Chandigarh Union Territory Administration has served notices to Doctors, Advocates, Architects and Chartered Accountants to stop their practice at the residential premises being used by them ever since the inception of the city;

(b) if so, whether Government/Administration are aware that the use of the residential premises by the professional groups for their work is permitted in all the major towns of the country;

(c) whether the Chandigarh Administration has offered any alternative sites to all those affected by the decision; and

(d) whether the Administration would also provide adequate medical facilities to the residents of every sector/locality of the city?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI CHINTAMANI PANIGRAHI): (a) to (c) The Chandigarh Administration has served notices to Doctors, Advocates, Architects and Chartered Accountants who are having practice at the residential premises. These notices were issued in the past also but in order to encourage the development of the city in the initial stages, these were not strictly enforced. Chandigarh is a planned city. It is governed by the Capital of Punjab (Development and Regulation) Act, 1952 and rules framed there-under and by the terms and conditions of the deed of conveyance executed in favour of the prospective purchasers. Within every residential sector, there is an area earmarked for commercial activity. Running of private clinics is permitted within the commercial areas in each residential sector.

(d) Besides the Post-Graduate Institute of Medical Education and Research and General Hospital, there are several easily accessible Government dispensaries in the city. There are also privately run clinics in the approved commercial areas of the city. Thus there are adequate medical facilities available to the residents of the city.
